

I am HOH and am desperate for Captel trials to begin in NJ. It is a wonderful way for people who are late deafened to communicate -- we are not part of the Deaf culture who use ASL as their primary language. We can speak, but we cannot determine word discrimination. Being able to read and hear simultaneously would help us enormously.